

BGSU Saturday Art Youth Program (begins September 21st)

The School of Art at Bowling Green State University is proud to offer youth art classes each semester for students in kindergarten – 12th grade. Young people will develop their creative abilities, increase their artistic skills and learn about art of the past and present. All classes involve hands-on participation in 2D and 3D projects.

Today more than ever, the arts are needed by our young people as a forum for safe expression, communication, exploration, imagination, and cultural and historical understanding.

Classes:

Classes meet for 10 Saturdays each semester from 10:00-11:30am.

• For Fall semester of 2019, classes will be meeting September 21st – November 23rd.

Fee: $79, plus $10 materials fee – for each semester (a few tuitions supports will be available for families with financial need. See website for application, due 8/6)

Students interested in these classes will need to be preregistered by mailing, faxing or emailing the forms as indicated on them. Class descriptions and forms can also be located on the BGSU Fine Arts Website <http://www.bgsu.edu/arts-and-sciences/school-of-art/community-engagement/saturday-art-program.html>

Classes are limited so pre-registration is required. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to email Shari Densel, Director of the BGSU Saturday Art Youth Program at: saturdayart@bgsu.edu
