

Maumee High School Announces Fall Play Maumee Senior Citizens Invited to Dessert Reception

Louisa M. Alcott's novel, Little Women will be staged on November 17 & 18 at 7 p.m. and November 19 at 2:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center at Maumee High School. Come join us for the story that never will grow old for its treatment of a mother's love for her children and their appreciation.

All tickets are assigned seating and prices are $10/adults & students. Maumee Senior Citizens with Golden Panther Card are admitted free of charge.

A dessert reception is planned for senior citizens who live within the Maumee City School District boundaries, just prior to the November 17 performance in the media center at MHS. Enter through the PAC lobby. You do not need a Golden Panther Card. You just need a reservation!

The reception is 6:15 – 7 p.m. and is free for senior citizens with a reservation.

Please R.S.V.P. by November 15 to 419-893-3200.
