WHO WE ARE

Our current Under One Roof Food Pantry had its start as an outreach project of the Women of St. Paul's organization over twenty years ago. Funded by the proceeds of the annual Christmas Auction, it was little more than a collection of canned goods housed in a basement closet in the church.

Today, the Under One Roof Food Pantry and Emergency Fund is a collaborative effort involving eight Maumee area churches, community agencies, local merchants, schools, organizations and private donors. These partners provide food, toiletries, household products, financial donations and volunteers to equip and operate a handicapped accessible storefront on the grounds of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Maumee. Thanks to the generosity of our community, we serve over 100 families per month. Please join us in supporting this project. Food and financial donations are gratefully accepted.
